

Summer School 2022

Primary: Dynamic

Summer School 1 (July 17- 28)

Module Name	Topic	Language	Skills	Project
Fun and Games	Hobbies, sports and games	Vocabulary connected with free-time activities, sports and sports equipment Learn and practise verb forms to give instructions for games Learn to sequence different steps when playing games Use “have to” when explaining rules	Speaking: Interview each other and speak about free-time activities Give a presentation about an interesting hobby Listening: Listen to descriptions of different games and summarise them Listen to a poem about free-time activities and answer questions	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic
Is it true?	Rainforests, bugs and animals that are now extinct	Vocabulary related to nature and animals in rainforests	Speaking: Participate in a role-play about deforestation Practise giving and responding to opinions	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic

	but once existed on earth Distinguishing between things that are true and those that are not	Learning to distinguish between facts and opinions	Learn language to persuade others Listening: Listen to a long poem about bugs and germs Develop listening skills for communicating and collaborating in groups
--	---	--	---	--

Summer School 2022

Primary: Dynamic

Summer School 2 (July 31- 11 August)

Module Name	Topic	Language	Skills	Project
Animal stories	Animal stories with a moral lesson	Adjectives and characteristics Connectives – before, after, when and then Past simple to describe the events of a story	Speaking: Role-play a scenario from the story Discuss and narrate an updated version of the story Listening: Listen to an extended text of the story and answer questions	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic
Our wonderful world	Built and natural wonders of our world	Vocabulary related to the continents and oceans Adjectives to describe places of beauty Review and consolidation of verb tenses Focus on correct punctuation	Speaking: Ask and answer questions in a class survey about places you would like to visit Discuss the survey results	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic

			Listening: Listen and complete a conversation about travelling
--	--	--	---	--

Summer School 2022

Primary: Dynamic

Summer School 3 (August 14 – 25)

Module Name	Topic	Language	Skills	Project
The Olympic Games	Historical background to the Olympics Modern day Olympic Games Famous Olympians	Vocabulary related to the Olympics Review past tenses Order events using the past simple and connectives – before, after, then, next	Speaking: Create and role-play a dialogue in pairs Interview a famous Olympian Listening: Listen to and summarise descriptions of sporting events	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic
Let's go on holiday!	Holidays and travelling	Vocabulary connected with safari holidays and wild animals Directions Descriptions to write a travel diary	Speaking: Present a group poster about an African animal Create a holiday advertisement for TV Listening: Listen to a conversation and identify	An arts and crafts or Lego-based project related to the topic

			the holiday location described Listen to and follow directions
--	--	--	---	--